MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

(a) Industry Structure and Developments

The Indian hospitality sector is one of the fastest-growing industries in the country, making significant contributions to both the economy and employment. As India strengthens its position as a global economic power, the hospitality industry is primed for continued growth. Fueled by domestic and international tourism, the sector includes diverse offerings, from luxury resorts to budget hotels, catering to a wide spectrum of consumer needs.

The post-pandemic recovery has been remarkable, and the industry is witnessing rising demand across various segments. Moving forward, the sector is expected to maintain its resilience, supported by key drivers such as government initiatives, technological advancements, and shifting consumer preferences. As of 2024, the Indian hospitality industry is valued at USD 35 billion, with a branded hotel room supply exceeding 180,000 rooms across various segments. The performance metrics, including Occupancy Rate, Average Daily Rate (ADR), and Revenue per Available Room (RevPAR), reflect strong recovery post-pandemic, with luxury and upscale segments leading the charge. India's branded hotel supply continues to expand, with demand still surpassing supply, especially in key urban hubs such as Mumbai, Delhi, and Bengaluru. This dynamic is pushing up ADR and overall market performance. India's hospitality sector is booming. It shows strong growth in early 2025. Investments are expected to reach USD 1 billion by 2028. Revenue Per Available Room increased significantly. Bengaluru leads with impressive growth, boosted by Aero India 2025. Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, and Hyderabad also show strong performance. New hotel signings indicate continued expansion across the country. India's hospitality industry, which demonstrated remarkable growth during January-March 2025, is expected to attract USD 1 billion in investments by 2028, a substantial increase from the USD 340 million in hotel transactions recorded last year.

India's tourism sector, rich in heritage, culture, and diversity, is emerging as a key driver of economic growth playing a vital role in the Indian economy. As per WTTC, the direct economic contribution of the Travel & Tourism sector to the Indian GDP in 2024 was ` 20.9 trillion (growth of 19.9% over 2019), contributing 6.6% to the overall GDP of the country. Additionally, the sector has contributed appx. 9.1% (46.3 million jobs) of total jobs in 2024, exhibiting a healthy 16.3% growth over 2019.

The hospitality market in India is experiencing growth due to the country's rich culture and diversity, attracting global guests. The service sector, has seen a rise in domestic travel, driven by growing middle class and increased disposable income. The hotel industry is expanding with new projects from international chains, driven by increased travel and government efforts to boost tourism. India's hospitality sector has undergone significant transformation driven by favorable government policies and infrastructure development initiatives. The government has implemented several measures to boost investments, including allowing 100% FDI through the automatic route and offering tax holidays for hotels located around UNESCO World Heritage sites. The Ministry has established the Hospitality Development and Promotion Board to streamline hotel project clearances and approvals. Additionally, the government has allocated INR 2 billion for developing tourist circuits at pilgrimage sites across the country, demonstrating its commitment to enhancing tourism infrastructure. These initiatives have positioned India among the top 100 countries globally for ease of doing business, particularly in the hospitality sector. The industry is witnessing a fundamental shift in ownership and operational models, with franchise and lease arrangements gaining prominence over traditional owned-hotel structures. Hotel chains are increasingly adopting asset light strategies, focusing on management contracts rather than property ownership to drive revenue growth. This transformation is particularly evident in the organized hotel sector.

The company has been successfully operating its hospitality business under the brand name "Pharos Hotels," a unit of Aruna Hotels Limited. This marks a significant milestone in the Company's revival journey and positions it strategically in the competitive hospitality sector.

The initial phase of operations was focused on establishing essential services and facilities, streamlining processes, and laying a strong foundation for future scalability. Efforts were directed toward enhancing guest experiences, implementing operational efficiencies, and aligning resources with business objectives.

(b) Opportunities and ThreatsTravel Rebound and Revenge Tourism

Post-pandemic travel demand remains strong, especially in emerging markets. Consumers are prioritizing experiences, leading to increased leisure and luxury travel.

Sustainable and Eco-Friendly Travel

Demand is growing for hotels that offer sustainable practices (e.g. zero-waste policies, renewable energy, local sourcing).

Opportunity to differentiate with green certifications like LEED or EarthCheck.Technology Integration and Smart Hotels

Use of AI, IoT, and automation for personalized guest experiences (voice assistants, smart rooms).

Mobile check-in, virtual concierges, and digital room service are becoming standard.

Work-from-Anywhere and Bleisure Travel

Rise of digital nomads and remote workers leads to longer stays.

Hotels offering co-working spaces and work-friendly amenities are in high demand.

Experience-Based Offerings

Guests are looking for cultural, wellness, and adventure experiences rather than just accommodation.

Partnerships with local tour providers, chefs, and artists can create new revenue streams.

Data Analytics & Personalization

Enhanced use of CRM and analytics to tailor marketing and services.

Loyalty programs can be optimized using AI for better guest retention.

Expansion into Tier 2 and Tier 3 Cities

Untapped demand in smaller cities and regional tourism hubs offers growth potential.

Threats:High Operational Costs:

Rising land, labour, and energy costs in Chennai, a major urban centre, challenge profitability, particularly for new hotel projects requiring significant capital investment.

Competition from International and Domestic Chains:

The entry of global brands like Marriott, Hyatt, and Ritz Carlton, alongside domestic players like Taj, intensifies competition, potentially leading to price wars and pressure on RevPAR, especially in the luxury and mid-scale segments.

Alternative Accommodations:

Platforms like Airbnb and homestays are gaining popularity among budget and millennial travelers, posing a threat to traditional hotels, particularly in the economy and mid-scale segments.

c) Segment-Wise Performance

During the year under review, the Company reported a profit before tax of Rs. 16.18 lakhs, a notable improvement compared to the loss of Rs. (373.81) lakhs in the previous year.

d) Outlook

The Indian hospitality sector presents an exciting growth trajectory with ample opportunities for stakeholders. The growth will be driven by increasing tourism, strong government support, and infrastructure development. By 2025, the market is expected to reach USD 55 billion, fueled by both domestic and international demand.

The adoption of innovative technologies and customer-centric business models will be crucial in positioning brands to capture this growth, ensuring long-term success.

Investment & Market Sentiment

Global hotel investment is poised to increase by 15%–25% over 2024, supported by cooling supply growth, improving debt markets, and strong activity in emerging markets such as India and the Middle East. Luxury and select service hotels, particularly in urban and high barrier markets, are attracting the most investor interest.

Technology & Intelligence

AI, IoT, automation, and contactless services are now central—not optional—to hotel operations. Expect smart rooms with voice controls, biometric check in, mobile-first digital experiences, and AI chatbots. Data analytics and predictive tools are transforming operations, enabling dynamic pricing, customization, predictive maintenance, and real-time decision-making. As OTAs face regulatory scrutiny, hotels are pushing to drive more direct bookings, aiming for >50% mix by 2030, supported by AI powered search platforms like via chat assistants.

Guest Experience, Wellness & New Offerings

Hyper personalized experiences are expected—from in room preferences and tailored packages to AR/VR previews and curated local excursions.

Wellness tourism is surging. Hotels are innovating with wellness programming, non-alcoholic beverage options, fitness amenities, mental health services, and regenerative-lifestyle retreats. Business leisure (“bleisure”) and extended stays are growing. Properties now offer co working spaces, corporate retreat packages, and extended stay room setups.

Sustainability & ESG Factors

Sustainability is now at the core of strategy: green building certifications, waste reduction, energy and water efficiency, carbon neutral goals and local sourcing all increase appeal to eco-conscious guests and institutional investors. ESG compliance is now a major valuation driver in investment decisions.

Profitability & Operational Resilience

Hotels are leveraging AI driven revenue management systems and automation (e.g., robotics and chatbots) to lower labor costs and drive ancillary revenue. However, in key markets such as the U.S., RevPAR growth (~2%) is modest, with labor, wage, insurance, and supply chain cost pressures leading to squeezed margins and profitability trends.

Challenges & Risks

Labor shortages, wage inflation, and stricter immigration enforcement (notably in the U.S.) are increasing costs and complexity.

Regulatory pressure on OTA dominance and data privacy/security concerns (especially around IoT and AI) may drive compliance costs.

Market reliance on tourism growth exposes hotels to macroeconomic risks, geopolitical friction, and consumer sentiment shifts—especially for domestic versus inbound travel demand.

(e) Risk & Concern

The Company always ensures that the risk management process is also an integral part of yearly business plan and it involves a systematic approach to identify, assess, manage and monitor risks that can affect the organisation’s ability to achieve its objectives.

(f) Internal Control Systems and their adequacy

The Company has institutionalized an adequate system of internal controls, with documented procedures covering all corporate functions of the hotel. Internal controls provide reasonable assurance regarding the effectiveness and efficiency of operations, the adequacy of safeguards for assets, the reliability of financial controls and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibility for the financial statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- a. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- b. Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- c. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- d. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- e. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in

- (i) Planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and
- (ii) To evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

We further note that the Company uses a separate software (IDS) to manage operational data relating to bookings and revenue. The revenue as per IDS is subsequently recorded in the books of account maintained in Tally. While IDS does not have an audit trail feature, the books of account as maintained in Tally (which incorporates this data) comply with the requirements of Rule 3(1) of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014

a. (A) The company has maintained proper records showing full particulars, including quantitative details and situation of Property, Plant and Equipment.

(B) The company does not have any intangible assets as at 31.03.2025 and hence, reporting under this clause is not applicable.

b. The Company has a regular program of physical verification of Property, Plant and Equipment, so all assets are verified in a phased manner over a period of three years. In our opinion, this periodicity of physical verification is reasonable having regard to the size of the Company and the nature of its assets. Pursuant to the program, certain fixed assets were physically verified during the year and no material discrepancies were noticed on such verification.

c. According to the information and explanations given to us and on the basis of our examination of the records of the Company, the title deeds of immovable properties disclosed in financial statements included under property, plant and equipment are held in the name of the Company as at the balance sheet date.

d. The company has not revalued its Property, Plant, and Equipment during the year. Therefore, the provisions of Clause (i)(d) of paragraph 3 of the order are not applicable to the company.

e. No proceedings have been initiated during the year or are pending against the Company as at March 31, 2025 for holding any benami property under the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 (as amended in 2016) and rules made thereunder.

ii. According to the information and explanations given to us, a. Physical verification of inventory has been conducted at reasonable intervals by the management and the coverage and procedure of such verification by the management is appropriate. During such verification, no discrepancies of 10% or more in the aggregate for each class of inventory were noticed.

b. The Company has not been sanctioned working capital limits in excess of ₹ 5 crore, in aggregate, at any points of time during the year, from banks or financial institutions on the basis of security of current assets and hence reporting under clause 3(ii)(b) of the Order is not applicable.

iii. According to the information and explanations given to us and based on our audit procedures, during the year the Company has not provided any loans or advances in the nature of loans, secured or unsecured, or made any investments, or provided any guarantee or security to companies, firms, Limited Liability Partnerships or any other parties. The GST Act, 2017	GST	0.46 Crores	FY 2020-21	Appeal to Appellate Authority

i. In the case mentioned, the dispute pertain to assessment years where the company reported losses. As a result, no income tax demand was raised against the company. The only potential impact, should the dispute be decided against the company, would be the adjustment of carried-forward losses to the extent of 2.38 crores. No financial outflow or tax liability would arise from these disputes.

The current liabilities majorly comprises of the principal portion of term loan payable within one year from the date of Balance sheet which the management has confirmed would be serviced through the cash generated from operations. “Annexure B” to the Independent Auditor’s Report

(Referred to in paragraph 2(f) under ‘Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements section of our report to the Members of Aruna Hotels Limited of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Aruna Hotels Limited (“the Company”) as of March 31, 2025, in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management’s Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company’s management and the Board of Directors are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal controls over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the “ICAI”). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the Company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as “the Act”).

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial controls over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial controls over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2024, based on the criteria for internal financial controls over financial reporting established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the "Guidance Note").

The principal activities of the company are to carry out business of developing, owning, acquiring, renovating, operating, managing and promoting hotels, restaurants etc.

The Company is a public limited company incorporated and domiciled in India. The Company has its primarily listing on the BSE Ltd.

The Board of Directors approved the financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2025 and authorised for issue on 24th May, 2024.

1.2 Basis of preparation of financial statementsStatement of Compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards ("Ind AS") as prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and other provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 as amended from time to time.

Basis of preparation

These financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for goods and services. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

The statement of cash flows has been prepared under indirect method, whereby profit or loss is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals, or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and items of income or expense associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing, and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

As the year ended figures are taken from the source and rounded to the nearest digits (Rs. in Lakhs), the figures reported for the previous quarters might not always add up to the year end figures reported in this statement.

The significant accounting policies used in the preparation of the financial statements have been discussed in the respective notes.

1.3 Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires management of the Company to make estimates, judgements and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported balances of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent liabilities as at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense for the periods presented.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised, and future periods are affected.

The Company uses the following critical accounting estimates in preparation of its financial statements.

Critical accounting estimates and judgements

Information about significant judgements and key sources of estimation made in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effects on the amounts recognized in the financial statements is included in the following notes:

- Useful lives of depreciable/ amortizable assets (tangible and intangible):

The Company reviews the useful life of property, plant, and equipment at the end of each reporting period. This reassessment may result in change in depreciation expense in future periods.

- Provisions and Contingencies:

The Company estimates the provisions that have present obligations as a result of past events, and it is probable that outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligations. These provisions are reviewed at the end of each reporting period and are adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. The Company uses significant judgements to disclose contingent liabilities. Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. Contingent assets are neither recognised nor disclosed in the financial statements.

- Impairment Testing

Property, plant and equipment, Right-of-Use assets and intangible assets that are subject to depreciation/ amortisation are tested for impairment periodically including when events occur or changes in circumstances indicate that the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit is less than its carrying value. The recoverable amount of cash generating units is higher of value-in-use and fair value less cost to sell. The calculation involves use of significant estimates and assumptions which includes turnover and earnings multiples, growth rates and net margins used to calculate projected future cash flows, risk-adjusted discount rate, future economic and market conditions.

- Income Taxes

Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is regarded as probable that deductible temporary differences can be realised. The Company estimates deferred tax assets and liabilities based on current tax laws and rates and in certain cases, business plans, including management's expectations regarding the manner and timing of recovery of the related assets. Changes in these estimates may affect the amount of deferred tax liabilities or the valuation of deferred tax assets and thereby the tax charge in the Statement of Profit and Loss

- Defined Benefit Plan

The cost of the defined benefit plans and the present value of the defined benefit obligation are based on actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method. An actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions that may differ from actual developments in the future. These include the determination of the discount rate, future salary increases and mortality rates. Due to the complexities involved in the valuation and its long-term nature, a defined benefit obligation is highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date

- Leases

Critical judgements in determining the lease term:

Ind AS 116 requires lessees to determine the lease term as the non-cancellable period of a lease adjusted with any option to extend or terminate the lease, if the use of such option is reasonably certain. The Company makes an assessment on the expected lease term on a lease-by-lease basis and thereby assesses whether it is reasonably certain that any options to extend or terminate the contract will be exercised. In evaluating the lease term, the Company considers factors such as any significant leasehold improvements undertaken over the lease term, costs relating to the termination of the lease and the importance of the underlying asset to Company's operations taking into account the location of the underlying asset and the availability of suitable alternatives. The lease term in future periods is reassessed to ensure that the lease term reflects the current economic circumstances.

Critical judgements in determining the discount rate:

The discount rate is generally based on the incremental borrowing rate specific to the lease being evaluated or for a portfolio of leases with similar characteristics.

1.4 Functional currency & presentation currency

The financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (INR) which is the functional and presentation currency of the Company, and all values are rounded off to the lakhs with two decimals, except where otherwise indicated.

1.5 Current vs. Non-current classification of Assets and Liability

The Company present assets and liabilities in the Balance Sheet based on current/ non-current classification.

An asset is classified as current when it is:

- Expected to be realized or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle.
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading.
- Expected to be realized within twelve months after the reporting period; or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All the other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is classified as current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle.
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading.
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period; or
- There are no unconditional rights to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

Deferred Tax Assets and Liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities respectively.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of the financial statements are as given below. These accounting policies have been applied consistently to all the periods presented in the financial statements.

2.1 Revenue recognition

The Company derives revenue primarily from rendering services related to hotel, restaurant etc. by providing accommodation and food to the guests.

Revenue is recognised at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods or services to a customer i.e. on transfer of control of the goods or service to the customer. Revenue from sales of goods or rendering of services is net of Indirect taxes, returns and discounts.

To determine whether to recognize revenue, the Company follows a 5-step process:

1. Identifying the contract with a customer
2. Identifying the performance obligations
3. Determining the transaction price
4. Allocating the transaction price to performance obligations
5. Recognizing revenue when/as performance obligation(s) are satisfied.

Revenue is recognised at the transaction price that is allocated to the performance obligation. Revenue includes room revenue, food and beverage sale and banquet services which is recognised once the rooms are occupied, food and beverages are sold and other services that have been provided as per the contract with the customer. In relation to laundry income and other allied services, the revenue has been recognised by reference to the time of service rendered.

Other income

Other income majorly comprises of rental income, scrap revenue which is recognized when the right to receive the income is established as per the terms of contract, interest income, write back of creditors. It also includes the interest waived off on loans borrowed by the company.

Interest Income

Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable (provided that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the company and the amount of income can be measured reliably).

2.2 Employee BenefitsShort-term employee benefits

The costs of all short-term employee benefits (that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service) are recognised during the period in which the employee renders the related service. The accruals for employee entitlements to benefits such as salaries and bonuses represent the amounts which the Company has a present obligation to pay as a result of the employee's services and the obligation can be measured reliably. The accruals have been calculated at undiscounted amounts based on current salary levels at the Balance Sheet date.

Post Employment BenefitsDefined contribution plans

A defined contribution plan is a post-employment benefit plan under which an entity pays fixed contributions into a separate entity and will have no legal or constructive obligation to pay further amounts.

The eligible employees of the Company are entitled to receive post-employment benefits in respect of provident and family pension fund, in which both the employees and the Company make monthly contributions at a specified percentage of the employee's eligible salary. The contributions made to the provident fund are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss as incurred. In respect of contribution to the PF Fund, the Company has no further obligations beyond making the contribution, and hence, such employee benefit plan is classified as Defined Contribution Plan.

Defined benefit plans

A defined benefit plan is a post-employment benefit plan other than a defined contribution plan. The Company's net obligation in respect of defined benefit plans is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in the current and prior periods, discounting that amount and deducting the fair value of any plan assets. The calculation of defined benefit obligation is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method.

The company does not have any earmarked investments as they have not contributed to any gratuity funds. Hence, there is no plan assets as on 31.03.2025.

2.3 Property, Plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and impairment, except for Freehold land. The company follows revaluation model for Land and cost model for other classes of assets. Costs directly attributable to acquisition are capitalized until the property, plant and equipment are ready for use, as intended by the management. On transition to IND AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its property plant and equipment recognised as at April 1, 2016, measured as per the previous GAAP, and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of such property plant and equipment. For the purpose of Proforma Ind AS financial information for the financial year ended March 31, 2016 the Company has provided the depreciation based on the estimated useful life of respective years and as the change in estimated useful life is considered as change in estimate, accordingly there is no impact of this roll back.

Depreciation on Plant, Property and Equipment

The depreciable amount of PP&E (being the gross carrying value less the estimated residual value) is depreciated on a systematic basis over its useful life.

Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Asset:	Useful Life:
Building	30 Years
Computers	3 Years
Equipment	5 Years
Furniture	10 Years
Plant & Machinery	15 Years
Servers	6 Years
Vehicles	8Years

Repairs and maintenance costs are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss when incurred.

De-recognition

An item of PPE is de-recognised at the time of its disposal or when it is assessed that no future economic benefit would accrue from it. The gain/ loss arising out of such disposal/retirement is taken to statement of profit or loss.

2.4 Investment Property

The properties that comprise a portion that is held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation and another portion that is held for use in the supply of services or for administrative purposes and if such portions cannot be sold separately, then such properties are not classified as investment property under IND AS 40 if only an insignificant portion have been leased out and majority is held as owner occupied property.

2.5 Leases & Right to Use Assets

On inception of a contract, the Company assesses whether it contains a lease. A contract contains a lease when it conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The right to use the asset and the obligation under the lease to make payments are recognised in the Company's statement of financial position as a right-of-use asset and a lease liability.

The company elects not to apply the requirements in paragraphs 22–49 of IND AS 116 to short-term leases and leases for which the underlying asset is of low value. The lease payments associated with those leases are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

2.6 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Company assesses at each reporting date, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. An asset is treated as impaired when the carrying cost of the asset exceeds its recoverable value being higher of value in use and net selling price. Value in use is computed at net present value of cash flow expected over the balance useful lives of the assets. For assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or group of assets (Cash Generating Units – CGU).

An impairment loss is recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the year in which an asset is identified as impaired. The impairment loss recognized in earlier accounting period is reversed if there has been an improvement in recoverable amount.

2.7 Income Tax

Income Tax comprises current and deferred tax. It is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss except to the extent that it relates to an item recognized directly in equity or in Other Comprehensive Income.

Deferred Tax assets and liabilities shall be measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized, or the liability is settled based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the corresponding amounts used for taxation purposes (i.e., tax base).

Deferred tax relating to items recognized outside the Statement of Profit and Loss is recognized either in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) or in equity. Deferred tax items are recognized in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Company intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

2.8 Financial assets, financial liabilities

Financial assets and liabilities are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value measured on initial recognition of financial asset or financial liability. The Company derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity. The Company derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Company's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired.

Financial assets at amortised cost

Financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost if these financial assets are held within a business whose objective is to hold these assets to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial assets give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Cash and cash equivalent

The Company considers all highly liquid financial instruments, which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value and having original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase, to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents consist of balances with banks which are unrestricted for withdrawal and usage.

Trade receivables

Trade receivables are initially recognised at fair value. Subsequently, these assets are held at amortised cost net of any expected credit losses. Loss allowance on trade receivables is measured at an amount equal to lifetime expected losses i.e., expected cash shortfall based on the management decision.

Impairment of financial assets (other than at fair value)

The Company assesses at each date of balance sheet whether a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired. Ind AS 109 requires expected credit losses to be measured through a loss allowance. The Company recognises lifetime expected losses for all contract assets and / or all trade receivables that do not constitute a financing transaction. In determining the allowances for doubtful trade receivables, the Company has used a practical expedient by computing the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables based on a provision matrix. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and is adjusted for forward looking information. The expected credit loss allowance is based on the ageing of the receivables that are due and allowance rates used in the provision matrix. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-months expected credit losses or at an amount equal to the lifetime expected credit losses if the credit risk on the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition.

De-recognition of financial assets

The company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party. If the company neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the company recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay. On de-recognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in the Statement of profit and loss.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments issued by the company are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by a company entity are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The carrying amounts of financial liabilities that are subsequently measured at amortised cost are determined based on the effective interest method. Interest expense that is not capitalized as a part of cost of an asset is included in the "Finance Costs".

The carrying amounts of the borrowings that are not measured at fair value are reasonable approximation of fair value, as they are floating rate instruments that are re-priced to market interest rates on or near the end of the reporting period. The interest expense recognized in Profit & Loss account will be based on the current market rate.

De-recognition of financial liabilities

The Company derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Company's obligations are discharged, cancelled, or have expired. An exchange with a lender of debt instruments with substantially different terms is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. Similarly, a substantial modification of the terms of an existing financial liability is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

2.9 Inventories

Stock of food and beverages and stores and operating supplies are carried at the lower of cost (computed on a Weighted Average basis) or net realisable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and selling expenses. Cost includes the fair value of consideration paid including duties and taxes (other than those refundable), inward freight, and other expenditure directly attributable to the purchase. Trade discounts and rebates are deducted in determining the cost of purchase.

2.10 Provisions, Contingent Assets and Contingent Liabilities

Provisions:

The company recognizes a provision when there is a present obligation to transfer economic benefits as a result of past events, it is probable (more likely than not) that such a transfer will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made. The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material). When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset if it is certain that reimbursements will be received, and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

Contingent Assets:

Contingent assets usually arise from unplanned or other unexpected events that give rise to the possibility of an inflow of economic benefits. Contingent Assets are not recognized though are disclosed, where an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Contingent Liabilities:

Contingent liability is a possible obligation arising from past events and the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognized because it is not possible that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefit will be required to settle the obligations or reliable estimate of the amount of the obligations cannot be made.

2.11 Borrowing Cost

General and specific borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that the Company incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds

2.12 Statement of Cash Flows

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit/ (loss) before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. Cash flow for the year are classified by operating, investing and financing activities.

2.13 Earning per Share.

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effect of all potentially dilutive equity shares.

Ordinary Shares

Ordinary Shares are classified as equity share capital. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of the new ordinary shares, share options and buyback are recognized as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue from operations

The Company derives revenue primarily from rendering services related to hotel, restaurant, banquets etc. by providing accommodation and food to the guests.

Effective 1 April 2018, the company adopted Ind AS 115 'Revenue from Contracts with customers' using the modified retrospective method. Under the modified retrospective method, an entity applies Ind AS 115 only for contracts that are not completed on or before 30 June 2018.

ARUNA HOTELS LIMITED

To determine whether to recognize revenue, the Company follows a 5-step process:

1. Identifying the contract with a customer
2. Identifying the performance obligations

Under Ind AS 115, the Company must evaluate the separability of the promised goods or services based on whether they are 'distinct'. A promised good or service is 'distinct' if both: The customer benefits from item either on its own or together with other readily available resources, and It is 'separately identifiable' (i.e. the Company does not provide a significant service integrating, modifying or customizing it)

3. Determining the transaction price

Under Ind AS 115, the Company shall consider the terms of the contract and its customary business practices to determine the transaction price. The transaction price excludes amounts collected on the behalf of the third parties. The consideration promised include fixed amounts, variable amounts or both. Where the Company has a right to consideration from a customer in an amount that corresponds directly with the value of the customer of the performance completed to date, the Company recognizes revenue in the amount to which it has right to invoice.

4. Allocating the transaction price to performance obligations

The transaction price is allocated to the separately identifiable performance obligations on the basis of their standalone selling price (in case of room rent where the customer pays a fixed rate per room for all the services provided). For services that are not provided separately, the standalone selling price is estimated using the adjusted market assessment approach.

5. Recognizing revenue when/as performance obligation(s) are satisfied

"Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured, regardless of when the payment is being made. Revenue is recognized either at a point in time or over time, when (or as) the Company satisfies performance obligations by transferring the promised goods or services to its customers. The company presents revenue net of indirect taxes in its statement of profit and loss."

Other Income

Other income is comprised primarily of interest income, dividend income, write back of creditors and interest on loans borrowed by the Company waived off.

1. The changes in Net profitability ratios, Interest Coverage Ratio and Operating Profit Margin are attributed to the fact that operations began in the middle of FY 2022-23. In the previous year, the company operated for the entire year, which significantly reduced losses compared to other years. Additionally, factors such as the waiver of interest contributed to this improvement.
2. The changes in the Trade Receivables and Trade Payables ratios are primarily due to the fact that operations commenced in the middle of FY 2022-23. In the previous year, the company had a full year of operations, which has impacted the comparative ratios.
3. The change in the inventory ratio is due to the fact that the average inventory for the last two years was used, and there was no inventory for FY 2021-22 since we had no operations. This resulted in a significant impact on the ratio.
